29 Holmes Park

A most impressive and spacious one bedroom fully furnished apartment which is finished to a high standard. Superbly positioned within minutes of the mainline station, town centre and the popular park with parking.

Lines & James are thrilled to bring this stylish fully furnished apartment to the market. It benefits from being the largest size single bedroom apartment within the development.

The position of this apartment could not be more convenient with the park just across the road, and both the station and the town centre are both within about five minutes walking.

The apartment is situated on the second floor with lift access available and accommodation comprises: The entrance hall has a cupboard housing the water cylinder. The spacious L-shaped living room with modern open plan kitchen which includes integrated appliances and large breakfast bar. The bedroom is a comfortable double with large wardrobe, and the bathroom has a fitted white suite with rain style shower over the bath.

The property also features electric underfloor heating, double glazed windows, and a gated underground parking space.
